- and easily accessible)
- Mentorship for “gap kids”
- Community engagement in education
- It was noted that a common theme for all three action teams is identification of community resources. A “special team” will be formed to spearhead the Resource Guide creation and maintenance. April Falco agreed to chair the committee. If you are interested in serving on this committee, please contact April Defalco (adefalco2@yahoo.com) or Debbie Young (Debbie.young@ky.gov)
- Great job by the action teams for making significant progress in March on the determination of major initiatives. May Action Team meetings should focus on specific SMART goals.

Open Discussion/Participant Updates:

Debbie Young (on behalf of Gary Mitchell)

- A representative from the Boys and Girls Club provided information to a group of community members on 4/22/15. Next steps include:
 - creation of a Steering Committee
 - development of Needs Assessment and Feasibility Study

Kenna Knight

- Reviewed notes from previous 2 Champions meetings.
- Mark your calendar for Nov 5/5. Interact for Health Training will be done by Search Institute. Although topic has yet to be finalized, it will probably be on 40 Developmental Assets and relationship building.
- “Shop like a Local” program scheduled for 6/1 through 8/31. Be on the lookout for brochures and information at the local businesses. You can earn rewards by shopping locally.
